

1. Write a query to display the employee(s) who earn the maximum salary in the company.
2. Display employees who earn more than the average salary of the company.
3. Find employees who earn the minimum salary in the company.
4. Display employees whose salary is equal to the average salary of department 20.
5. Find the employee(s) who were hired on the latest hire date.
6. Display employees who work in departments located in location_id = 1700.
7. Find employees whose job_id is the same as any employee working in department 80.
8. Display employees who earn more than all employees with job_id = 'SH_CLERK'.
9. Display employees who earn less than any employee with job_id = 'IT_PROG'.
10. Find employees working in departments where the department name contains 'Sales'.
11. Display employees who earn more than the average salary of their own department.
12. Find employees who earn the highest salary in their department.
13. Display employees whose salary is greater than the average salary of employees with the same job_id.
15. Write a query to display the employee_id, first_name, hire_date, and department_id of employees who were hired after the earliest hired employee in their respective department. Display employees who are managers (i.e., employees who manage at least one employee).
16. Display employees who are not managers.
17. Display departments that have no employees.
18. Display departments that have at least one employee earning more than 10000.
19. Display departments whose average salary is greater than 8000.
20. From an inline view, display the top 3 departments with highest average salary.